Discovery Deadline. Deadline for completion of all discovery, including depositions, motions to compel and motions regarding privilege disputes.

MOTIONS TO COMPEL: It is ORDERED that prior to filing a Motion to Compel, LEAD COUNSEL (and any unrepresented person), accompanied by anyone else whose presence is needed to fully explore resolution, shall meet IN PERSON to discuss all outstanding requests for discovery at issue.

If the meeting between lead counsel does not resolve the dispute, the attorneys shall prepare and file a JOINT REPORT ON DISCOVERY DISPUTES in the form found at <https://www.wilco.org/Elected-Officials/District-Courts/425th-District-Court/Attorneys-Discovery-Dispute-Joint-Report>. The joint report shall be filed with the motion to compel. Unjustified delay in arranging the meeting, or refusal to attend or participate meaningfully will be grounds for sanctions and/or for entry of an order in favor of the other side. Except in extreme circumstances, excuses such as press of business, inconvenience, or cost will not suffice. In the event the parties are unable to agree on a site for the in-person meeting of lead counsel, the court requires the party who first filed the motion to compel to designate the meeting location.

Upon receipt of the Motion to Compel with the Discovery Dispute Joint Report attached, the court will determine whether further proceedings, if any, are appropriate. If the issues are clearly presented and ripe for decision, the court may issue a ruling. Any party seeking an award of attorney fees or other expenses because of a discovery dispute shall file a noticed motion pursuant to the rules. The court recommends the filing of such a motion would occur after the court has ruled on the dispute.

All motions to compel shall include a Discovery Dispute Report. If the party filing the Motion to Compel is unable to obtain cooperation from opposing party for the completion of a Discovery Dispute Joint Report, the moving party shall file their own Discovery Dispute Report attached to the motion.

Any motions to compel not containing the Discovery Dispute Report will not be set for oral hearing.

ALL MOTIONS TO STRIKE OBJECTIONS AS TO PRIVILEGE AND RESPONSES to such motions shall include legal briefs on the issues and a privilege log.

IT IS ORDERED that information that contains privileged matter or attorney work product shall be immediately returned to the producing party (i) if such information appears on its face that it may have been inadvertently produced or (ii) if the producing party provides notice within 15 days of discovery by the producing party of the inadvertent production.

June 30, 2026

Deadline for all Dispositive Motions to be heard.

ALL MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT must have attached the Elements of Proof Rubric found at the court's website at https://www.wilco.org/Elected-Officials/District-Courts/425th-District-Court/Attorneys - Summary Judgment Rubric.
